JUST BE U

---

Some people say it's not about the destination, it's about the journey. We would say it's both. Whether its communion with nature, creative expression or physical and spiritual rejuvenation, Ukiah is a place to discover new experiences.

The naturally breathtaking views, the community of free thinkers, world-class cultural arts venues, outdoor recreation, and a restored historic downtown have created a magical place where expression is a tradition and a way of live. This is where ranching families live alongside artists, musicians, winemakers, and innovative entrepreneurs.

Located just two hours north of San Francisco, Ukiah embodies the essence of a small town and is a welcome retreat from more crowded destinations. With it's boundless opportunities to adventure, discover, and even meander, a visit in Ukiah offers you chance to "just be U".

SHOP. DINE. DISCOVER HISTORIC DOWNTOWN.

SHOPPING

Ukiah may be small, but it's big enough in spirit for a wide variety of businesses. Stroll through the tree lined streets dotted with a vibrant boutiques that reflect the expression of their owners that curate collections distinctive and unique. From the latest fashions to rare books, kitchen gadgets, music, and art, you are sure to find a treasure to take home.

DINING

Fresh, organic, farm to table food and wine are the stars in our local restaurant scene. Delight your palate with flavors artfully prepared by our chefs and discover your own favorite corner table in one of our family owned eateries.

PLAY

TASTE THE GOOD LIFE.

WINERIES

Ukiah is home to over 30 tasting rooms that remain casual with exceptional hospitality. They offer an opportunity to taste award winning wines where many will also invite you to meet the winery owners, and talk with winemakers. Expand your wine knowledge, treat your palate to diverse varietals, and discover what makes our wine region known as “America’s greenest”.

MICROBREWERIES

Ukiah is home to pioneers of the microbrew world. Located in the heart of Historic Downtown Ukiah, Ukiah Brewing Company, was the nation’s first certified organic brew pub and restaurant in 2001. It is a local hangout for great food, brews, and live music.

Anderson Valley Brewery, just a small drive away in Anderson Valley, is a place to visit for more great tastes and to learn the fun folk language of “Boontling”.

SPIRITS AND MORE

Cocktails anyone? Ukiah has several distilleries that are locally owned and operated. Take a tour and taste the different spirits that add an extra sparkle to a “happy hour” anytime of the day.
